INSTRUCTIONS: This form must be used by candidates and all political campaign committees to report major contributions, loans, expenditures, and/or obligations during the final days of a campaign, as required by T .C.A. § 2-10-105(h). Such contributions, loans, expenditures, and/or obligations must be reported if they are received/incurred during the period beginning at midnight of the 10th day prior to any election in which the candidates or committees are involved and extending through midnight of such election day.

Each candidate and each political campaign committee must disclose the full name and address of each person or other political campaign committee from whom the filer received and accepted a contribution, loan, or transfer of funds and the date of receipt of such contribution, loan, or transfer of funds which, in the aggregate, equals or exceeds the following: for a candidate/committee participating in the election of a candidate for any statewide office, five thousand dollars ($5,000); for a candidate/committee participating in the election of a candidate for any other state or local public office, three thousand dollars ($3,000). Such contributions or loans must be reflected on any subsequent campaign financial disclosure statement required by law.

Further, each candidate and each political campaign committee must disclose the full name and address of each person or recipient entity who was paid or to whom an obligation is owed which equals or exceeds the following: for a candidate/committee participating in the election of a candidate for any statewide office, five thousand dollars ($5,000); for a candidate/committee participating in the election of a candidate for any other state or local public office, three thousand dollars ($3,000). Such expenditures or obligations must be reflected on any subsequent campaign financial disclosure statement required by law.

This report must be filed with the Registry of Election Finance or the county election commission, whichever is required by law, by the end of the next business day following the day on which the contribution or expenditure to be reported is received or made, and must be filed by hand delivery, by overnight delivery, by facsimile, or electronically. If such time falls other than during regular working hours, the report shall be filed after the opening of the office of the Registry or election commission on the next working day. To submit via fax to the Registry of Election Finance, use the following fax number: (615) 532-8905.
