Is my voter information public record?

According to Tennessee State Law TCA10-7-503 voter registration data is subject to open records laws.

However, your social security number will never be public record and is not subject to open records laws.